

Discrimination is Against the Law

Heart of Virginia Cardiology (HVC), a division of Physicians Care of Virginia (PCV) complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. HVC does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

HVC provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters

- Written information in other formats such as large print, audio or accessible electronic formats

HVC provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:

- Qualified interpreters

- Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact our Civil Rights Coordinator: Sharon Woodfield.

If you believe that HVC has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with:

Sharon Woodfield
